About Our Service

Live Well Wedding Officiant orchestrates wedding services and is based in Windsor, New Jersey. Reverend Kahlil Carmichael, Senior Pastor of Live Well Church, is an ordained minister and holds two Masters degrees from New York Theological Seminary. Reverend Carmichael chooses an approach to officiating that embraces all denominations.

Weddings by Live Well Officiant

"The ceremony was beautiful..."

Kay Martin, Married in 2020

"The best officiant!!!"

Kimberly Baptiste, Married in 2019

Fully qualified to perform weddings in the states of New Jersey and New York, Reverend Carmichael has been performing weddings for twelve years - each tailored to the bride and groom. He opts to shift the traditional religious focus of the ceremony to one that celebrates the relationship of the special couple.

Live Well Wedding Officiant is dedicated to leading services that are engaging to every member of the party. Reverend Carmichael gets to know couples, and their personalities are accurately represented in their ceremony.

What Sets Us Apart From Other Officiants?

Reverend Carmichael believes that caring for the relationship is an important part of the marriage process and offers counseling services in addition to planning for the wedding day. This officiant can use his insight and experience to provide a rousing narrative for the service and his main objective is to deliver a beautiful and harmonious service that echoes the singular bond you both share.

Reverend Carmichael specializes in ceremonies that are spiritual, not religious, and the focus of the day will be your union and the love that you share. He performs religious, interfaith, non-denominational and civil ceremonies and Reverend Carmichael welcomes your thoughts and looks forward to discussing your desires for your wedding day. Through open dialogue, Reverend Carmichael and his team will create the wedding day of your dreams!
